

Solaris Oilfield Infrastructure, Inc. Prices Initial Public Offering

May 12, 2017

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Solaris Oilfield Infrastructure, Inc. (NYSE: SOI) ("Solaris") announced today the pricing of its initial public offering of 10,100,000 shares of its Class A common stock at $12.00 per share. The shares are expected to begin trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol "SOI" on May 12, 2017. In addition, Solaris granted the underwriters a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 1,515,000 shares of Solaris' Class A common stock at the initial public offering price, less underwriting discounts and commissions. The offering is expected to close on May 17, 2017, subject to customary closing conditions.

Solaris intends to contribute all of the approximately $110.8 million of net proceeds, or $127.9 million if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares in full, Solaris will receive from this offering to its subsidiary, Solaris Oilfield Infrastructure, LLC ("Solaris LLC"), in exchange for limited liability company units in Solaris LLC. Solaris LLC intends to use the net proceeds to repay borrowings incurred under its credit facility, to pay cash bonuses to certain employees and consultants, to make a cash distribution to the existing owners of Solaris LLC, and for other general corporate purposes, including to fund Solaris' 2017 capital program.

Credit Suisse and Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC acted as joint book-running managers for the offering. The offering of these securities will be made only by means of a prospectus that meets the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933. A copy of the prospectus may be obtained from:
